CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY / VOLUME 104

Alma Mater

Hail, all hail to Cumberland, Sing
her praises ever.
To her mem'ry ever true, We'll forsake her never.
Like the Phoenix from the ashes,
She arose to live again,
Ever glorious as before, Both today and evermore.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

"Learning and working together we can make this campus a special, growing environment where each of us, individually and collectively, will thrive."

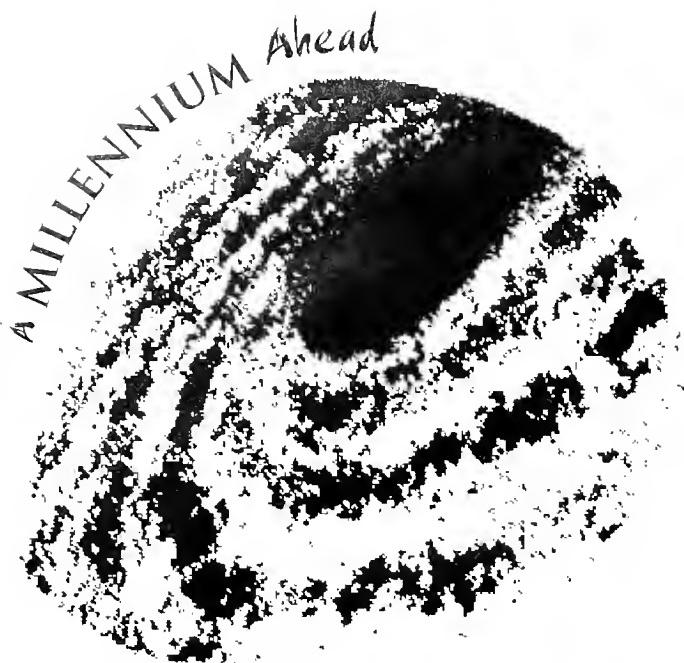

President Clair E. Martin

1998-99 DEDICATION

Dr. Jack L. Gregory

Because of his service to Cumberland University and his dedication to the students of Cumberland University, the 1998-99 edition of the Phoenix Yearbook is dedicated to Dr. Jack L. Gregory.

STUDENT LIFE

All Cumberland University students know that there is plenty to keep them busy besides school work. From Homecoming events to participation in clubs and organizations, our students are involved. One could say that our student life on campus is a Millennium Ahead!

Homecoming 1999

Just like every year, Homecoming was filled with excitement and fun! Even though the parade was cancelled due to rain, groups still brought their floats out to the game to show their spirit for Cumberland. Memorable events such as the Big Dawg on Campus contest and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen will take us into the next Millennium!

When the Tennessee Vols beat the Florida Gators this fall, President Martin had to pay. He had to push Lebanon Mayor Don Fox around the square! Better luck next year Dr. Martin!

LOSES A BET TO MAYOR DON FOX!

CU at Halloween

ANOTHER GHOSTLY SUCCESS!

This year the STEA sponsored one of the best CU at Halloweens ever! Not only did CU clubs and organizations participate and have fun, the community did as well.

IT HAD TO ... GET ... WORSE

At times, it seemed like the construction on Memorial Hall and Baird Chapel would never end.

But, we all know that some things have to get worse before they can become better.

... . . . IT . . . .
COULD GET
BETTER

When all was said and done,
the construction on Memorial Hall and Baird Chapel was an overwhelming success! Some things in life are definately worth the wait!

The Coming Home events this year were very exciting for all! Heather Childers won the annual Lady Dawg contest, and Joe Williams was crowned Coming Home King. Let's not forget all the fun had on Bowling Night and during the Dating and Newleywed games!

Fall Preview Day

CHECK US OUT!

What better way to promote our University than to invite prospective students to "check us out"? No better way than Fall Preview Day!

Prospective students had another opportunity to "check us out" at Spring Preview Day. CU faculty, staff and students showed just what we have to offer.

Spring Preview Day

CHECK US OUT, AGAIN!

Dracula

GOOD ENOUGH TO SINK YOUR TEETH INTO!

Dr. Menefee and the cast of Dracula did an amazing job not only on the set, but also on stage. A top notch performance was delivered to the audience. Wonder what's in store for CU next year!

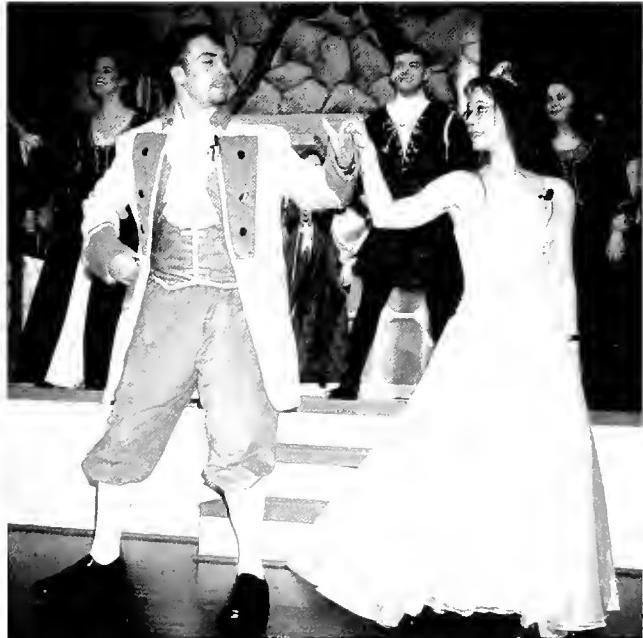

If you didn't catch the production of Cinderella this year, you really missed out! The costumes, set and actors were exceptional. This was no ordinary fairytale!

Cinderella

MORE THAN JUST A FAIRYTALE

Snowbird

WHAT A COOL GUY!

What an exciting a cool day it was when Snowbird visited our campus on Alumni Day. Everyone enjoyed meeting Snowbird but wondered why he didn't bring any snow with him!
